GENERAL

1. In this Chapter, and in each Appendix, a Party is deemed to be directly engaged in a disagreement if another Party, acting reasonably, gives the first Party a written notice requiring it to participate in a process described in this Chapter to resolve the disagreement.
2. The Parties share the following objectives:
 - a) to cooperate with each other to develop harmonious working relationships;
 - b) to prevent, or, alternatively, to minimize disagreements;
 - c) to identify disagreements quickly and resolve them in the most expeditious and cost-effective manner possible; and

- a) the abridgement of a time limit; or
 - b) the extension of a time limit, despite the expiration of that time limit
- in this Chapter or in an Appendix.

SCOPE: WHEN THIS CHAPTER APPLIES TO A DISAGREEMENT

- 5. This Chapter is not intended to apply to all conflicts or disputes between or among the Parties, but is limited to the conflicts or disputes described in paragraph 6.
- 6. This Chapter only applies to:
 - a) a conflict or dispute respecting:
 - i. the interpretation, application, or implementation of the Final Agreement;
or
 - ii. a breach or anticipated breach of the Final Agreement;
 - b) a conflict or dispute, where provided for in the Final Agreement; or
 - c) negotiations required to be conducted under any provision of the Final Agreement that provides that the Parties, or any of them, "will negotiate and attempt to reach agreement."
- 7. This Chapter does not apply to:
 - a) an agreement between or among the Parties that is ancillary, subsequent, or supplemental to the Final Agreement unless the Parties have agreed that this Chapter applies to that agreement;
 - b) the Implementation Plan; or
 - c) conflicts or disputes, where excluded from this Chapter.
- 8. Nothing in this Chapter limits the application of a dispute resolution process, under any law of general application, to a conflict or dispute involving a person if that conflict or dispute is not a disagreement.

9. Nothing in any law of general application limits the rights of a Party to refer a disagreement to this Chapter.

DISAGREEMENTS TO GO THROUGH STAGES

10. The Parties desire and expect that most disagreements will be resolved by informal discussions between or among the Parties, without the necessity of invoking this Chapter.
11. Except as otherwise provided, disagreements not resolved informally will progress, until resolved, through the following stages:
- a) Stage One: formal, unassisted efforts to reach agreement between or among the Parties, in collaborative negotiations under Appendix M-1;
 - b) Stage Two: structured efforts to reach agreement between or among the Parties with the assistance of a neutral, who has no authority to resolve the dispute, in a facilitated process under Appendix M-2, M-3, M-4, or M-5 as applicable; and
 - c) Stage Three: final adjudication in arbitral proceedings under Appendix M-6, or in judicial proceedings.
12. Except as otherwise provided, no Party may refer a disagreement to final adjudication in Stage Three without first proceeding through Stage One and a facilitated process in Stage Two as required in this Chapter.
13. Nothing in this Chapter prevents a Party from commencing arbitral or judicial proceedings at any time:
- a) to prevent the loss of a right to commence proceedings due to the expiration of a limitation period; or
 - b) to obtain interlocutory or interim relief that is otherwise available pending resolution of the disagreement under this Chapter.

STAGE ONE: COLLABORATIVE NEGOTIATIONS

14. If a disagreement is not resolved by informal discussion, and a Party directly engaged in the disagreement wishes to invoke this Chapter, that Party will deliver a written notice, as

- required under Appendix M-1, as soon as practicable to the other Parties, requiring the commencement of collaborative negotiations.
15. Upon receiving the notice under paragraph 14, a Party directly engaged in the disagreement will participate in the collaborative negotiations.
 16. A Party not directly engaged in the disagreement may participate in the collaborative negotiations by giving written notice to the other Parties, preferably before the collaborative negotiations commence.
 17. If the Parties have commenced negotiations in the circumstances described in subparagraph 6(c), then, for all purposes under this Chapter, those negotiations will be deemed collaborative negotiations and the particular matter under negotiation will be considered a disagreement.
 18. Collaborative negotiations terminate in the circumstances set out in Appendix M-1.

STAGE TWO: FACILITATED PROCESSES

19. Within 15 days of termination of collaborative negotiations that have not resolved the disagreement, a Party directly engaged in a disagreement, by delivering a notice to the other Parties, may require the commencement of a facilitated process.
20. A notice under paragraph 19:
 - a) will include the name of the Party or Parties directly engaged in the disagreement and a summary of the particulars of the disagreement; and
 - b) may propose the use of a particular facilitated process described in paragraph 23.
21. Upon receiving a notice under paragraph 19, a Party directly engaged in the disagreement will participate in a facilitated process described in paragraph 23.
22. A Party not directly engaged in the disagreement may participate in the facilitated process by giving written notice to the other Parties within 15 days of delivery of a notice under paragraph 19.
23. Within 30 days after delivery of a notice under paragraph 19, the Parties directly engaged in the disagreement will attempt to agree to use one of the following processes:
 - a) mediation under Appendix M-2;

- b) technical advisory panel under Appendix M-3;
- c) neutral evaluation under Appendix M-4;
- d) eminent persons advisory panel under Appendix M-5; or
- e) any other non-binding dispute resolution process assisted by a neutral and if they fail to agree, they will be deemed to have selected mediation under Appendix M-2.

24. A facilitated process terminates:

- a) in the circumstances set out in the applicable Appendix; or
- b) as agreed by the participating Parties, if an Appendix does not apply.

NEGOTIATING CONDITIONS

25. In order to enhance the prospect of reaching agreement, the Parties participating in collaborative negotiations or a negotiation component of a facilitated process will:

- a) at the request of a participating Party, provide timely disclosure of sufficient information and documents to enable a full examination of the subject matter being negotiated;
- b) make every reasonable effort to appoint negotiating representatives with sufficient authority to reach an agreement, or with ready access to such authority; and
- c) negotiate in good faith.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

26. Any agreement reached in a process under this Chapter:

- a) will be:

- i. recorded in writing,
 - ii. signed by authorized representatives of the Parties to the agreement, and
 - iii. delivered to all Parties; and
- b) is binding only on the Parties who have signed the agreement.

STAGE THREE: ADJUDICATION – ARBITRATION

27. After the later of termination of collaborative negotiations, or of a required facilitated process, in respect of a disagreement arising out of any provision of the Final Agreement that provides that a matter will be “finally determined by arbitration,” the disagreement will, on the delivery of a notice by a Party directly engaged in the disagreement, to all Parties as required under Appendix M-6, be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with that Appendix.
28. After the later of termination of collaborative negotiations, or a required facilitated process, in respect of any disagreement, other than a disagreement referred to in paragraph 27, and with the written agreement of all Parties directly engaged in the disagreement, the disagreement will be referred to, and finally resolved by, arbitration in accordance with Appendix M-6.
29. If two Parties make a written agreement under paragraph 28, they will deliver a copy of the agreement as soon as practicable to the other Party.
30. Upon delivering a written notice to the participating Parties to the arbitration within 15 days after receiving a notice under paragraph 27 or copy of a written agreement under paragraph 29, a Party not directly engaged in the disagreement is entitled to be, and will be added as, a party to the arbitration of that disagreement whether or not that Party has participated in collaborative negotiations or a required facilitated process.
31. Despite paragraph 30, an arbitral tribunal may make an order adding a Party as a participating Party at any time, if the arbitral tribunal considers that:
- a) the participating Parties will not be unduly prejudiced; or
 - b) the issues stated in the pleadings are materially different from those identified in the notice to arbitrate under paragraph 27 or the written agreement to arbitrate in paragraph 28 and, in that event, the arbitral tribunal may make any order it considers appropriate or necessary in the circumstances respecting conditions, including the payment of costs, upon which the Party may be added.

EFFECT OF ARBITRAL AWARD

32. An arbitral award is final and binding on all Parties whether or not a Party has participated in the arbitration.
33. Despite paragraph 32, an arbitral award is not binding on a Party that has not participated in the arbitration if:
 - a) the Party did not receive copies of:
 - i. the notice of arbitration or agreement to arbitrate, or
 - ii. the pleadings and any amendments or supplements to the pleadings; or
 - b) the arbitral tribunal refused to add the Party as a participating Party to the arbitration under paragraph 31.

APPLICATION OF LEGISLATION

34. No legislation of any Party respecting arbitration, except the settlement legislation, applies to an arbitration conducted under this Chapter.
35. A court must not intervene or offer assistance in an arbitration or review an arbitral award under this Chapter except as provided in Appendix M-6.

STAGE THREE: ADJUDICATION – JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

36. Nothing in this Chapter creates a cause of action where none otherwise exists.
37. Subject to paragraph 38, at any time a Party may commence proceedings in the Supreme Court of British Columbia in respect of a disagreement.

 - b) has not been referred to collaborative negotiations or a facilitated process as required under this Chapter; or
 - c) has been referred to collaborative negotiations or a facilitated process that has not yet been terminated.
39. Nothing in paragraph 38(a) prevents an arbitral tribunal or the participating Parties from requesting the Supreme Court of British Columbia to make a ruling respecting a question of law as permitted in Appendix M-6.

NOTICE TO PARTIES

40. If, in any judicial, arbitral, or administrative proceeding, an issue arises in respect of:
- a) the interpretation or validity of the Final Agreement; or
 - b) the validity, or applicability of:
 - i. any settlement legislation, or
 - ii. any Te'mexw Member First Nation law

the issue will not be decided until the party raising the issue has properly served notice on the Attorney General of British Columbia, the Attorney General of Canada, and all the Te'mexw Member First Nation Governments.

41. In any judicial, arbitral, or administrative proceeding to which paragraph 40 applies, the Attorney General of British Columbia, the Attorney General of Canada, and any Te'mexw Member First Nation Government may appear and participate in the proceedings as parties with the same rights as any other party.
